

Mothers Against Drunk Driving.

I am writing about MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) I am because I think it is plain wrong to drink and drive. If I ever become a mother, I would be scared of my child getting hurt. I think I know how my mother feels now. If I were to win this contest, I hope that people that drink and drive get that you could kill an innocent person. Why not save a life instead? The worst thing is that the guilt tears you apart. This is even worse than being fined or even being sent to prison. It will keep you in prison for years, or fine you hundreds of thousands. That is why I suggest that you never drink and drive. I really hope that no other kids or adults get hurt or killed. I mean, wouldn't you feel bad? No offence but you should, because I would be really mad at you if you killed my siblings. I wrote this to let people know to...
