

MADD Canada's Annual Multi-Media Contest Your theme should be based on MADD Canada's Campaign 911 Program

MADD Canada recognizes the unique perspective and insight of youth, especially in messaging towards their peers. In order to cultivate and encourage youth involvement in the fight against impaired driving, MADD Canada's Multi-Media Awards are for students under 24 years old.

The categories in which participants can enter are as following:

Short Film/Presentation

This presentation should be created as a short film illustrating a call to action for Canadians to stop impaired driving. The presentation must be original, and have content focusing on the theme. A compilation of audio and video in the form of a DVD, VHS, mpeg file, Macromedia Shockwave or Flash file and Microsoft PowerPoint will be accepted. The presentation must not be less than 60 seconds or more than 5 minutes.

Audio Public Service Announcement

This recording should be created as a Radio PSA, urging Canadians to stop impaired driving. An audio recording in the form of an mp3 file, tape or CD not shorter than the length of 15 seconds and no greater in length than 60 seconds.

Multi-Media Public Service Announcement

This presentation designed for TV must deliver a high emotional impact in a timeframe no less than 15 seconds and no greater than 60 seconds. A compilation of audio and video in the form of a DVD, VHS, mpeg file, Macromedia Shockwave or Flash file and Microsoft PowerPoint will be accepted.

The Topic

This year's production must focus on youth taking action and realizing that they have the power to stop the damage caused by impaired driving!

General Guidelines

- This contest is open to all youth in Canada under the age of 24.
- Content must all be original.
- An applicant can be a student within the defined age, but youth within the age limit that are not students can also apply.
- Staff and teachers are allowed to give input but production must be done by applicants.
- Applicants are encouraged to work in teams but an individual applicant can apply.

Contest Rules

- Applicants must use factual evidence and provide their sources either in the credits or as an attachment.
- Applicants cannot exceed the time limits referenced for each category.
